there was no anticipated destruction of John A Snyder's small barn between the house and mill, just on the eastern borough limits, was discovered to be on fire. The firemen with the hand engine were soon on hand, too late to save the barn, but in time to save the large mill which was on fire at several places. The barn contained five loads of hay and two of straw. Adjoining the barn were a hog pen and an ice house, both of which were destroyed. The only live stock in the building were four porkers which were let out. This property is not insured and foots up a loss of about $1,000. Mr. Snyder is now in Iowa, and no men were on the premises when the brand ignited the

A Mr. Bear, of near Salunga, reports that charred pieces fell in the field where he was plowing. This is five miles east of the borough and seems almost incredible, but the authority is reliable.

A look at the partially burned buildings surrounding the ruins speaks volumes in the praise of the firemen and the many citizens who lent a willing hand. R. F. Plummer, proprietor of the Washington house severly sprained an ankle and is deprived of the use of it. S. N. Eby, while taking hold of a fence burned one of his hands in blisters, making a painful wound. One unfortunate made a misstep and went China-ward. A change of clothing was essential for his comfort. Mrs. William Dierolf, overcome with excitement, fainted and lay unconscious for some time at a neighbor's house.

A Horse Breaks its Leg While Jogging Along a Summer Road. Yesterday while Mr. Chas, S. Burns, of the firm of Shaub & Burns, this city, was driving on the summer road along the New Holland pike, a short distance this side of that village, his horse suddenly lamed and stopped short. Mr. Burns get out of the vehicle and found that the horse had broken both bones of one of its hind legs a short distance below the knee, How the accident happened Mr. Barns cannot explain. He is a careful driver, was driving slowly on a perfectly smooth roal, in which there were no holes nor any other known obstructions. The horse did not stumble nor catch its leg in any part of the vehicle or harness, and yet both bones of the leg were broken off. The horse belonged to Thos. J. The Lancaster special to the Philadelphia Press "estimates" the number present at the Republican meeting at South Queen and Conestoga streets last night at 3,000. Well, we have all heard the story of the oysterman who, when he wanted to order 10 barrels of oysters, thought it would look better and do no harm to add a "nully or two" and was immensely as tonished when he received 1,000 barrels instead of 10. That's just what the Press's special has done. He holds "ciphers" in such low estimation that he slings them about regardless of consequence. The club "numbering 300 members" paraded exactly 2; men by actual count. The club of "about 500" turned out exactly 50 uniformed men and boys, and the other clubs a less number. There was at no time 300 listeners around the speakers' stand, and the speeches by Jo. Miller Reinoehl, Jumping Jack Brown and Tobacco Jake Amwake were utterly devoid of point if not of slave: The best speech of the evening and the only one that created any enthusiasm was made by Ed. ANOTHER FIZZLE.

Republican Pole-Raising at Bareville. The Republicans of Bareville, Leacock township, erected a poplar pole, 90 feet long, in front of the postoffice. The pole was cut on Sunday last, without leave, from the woods of Abraham Stultzfuss, an Amish farmer. The meeting held on the occasion was a small one, and the "procession" a miserable fizzle, there being not more than 32 persons in line, a majority of them non-voters. Speeches of the usual blood and thunder bloody shirt variety were made by Statesman J. H. Landis and Wm. D. Weaver, embryo district attorney. The attempt to get up a boom in behalf of the De Golyer bribe, the Credit Mobilier steal and the New York custom house fraud, was a dead failure in Bareville, as it has been whe ever else at- Lancaster at 3 o'clock. tempted.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE

Political—Fire Matters—Factional Fight— The Borough Budget. At a recent meeting of Company A of the H. M. North Democratic marching club Bert M. Slade was elected captain Martin H. Smith, 1st lieutenant, and Harry C. Lichty, 2d licutenant. The company has a full membership. James D. Slade is recruiting a junior company and had yesterday about thirty-five names on his roll. An election of officers will take place as seen as the company is full.

The Vigilant fire company of this place will no doubt make a creditable appearance at the firemen's parade in Hagerstown, Md., on October 20. The members of the company who will participate are all having new firemen's shirts made for the occasion and those who are not supplied with hats will purchase the same in time for the visit. Then, too, the apparatus will be put in the best condition and will be gaily trimmed out in everything which will add to the beauty of its appearance. If the company is not awarded first place we will be disappointed.

After a hot fight between the factions, the Republicans last evening elected Col. Samuel Shoch, president of the Columbia national bank, colonel emeritus of the "Colonel Shoch marching club." Harry Mullen was elected lieutenant colonel, and John L. Wright, major. As a prominent partisan said the other day, "we want a man for colonel who will pay our toll across the bridge when we go to Wrightsville so that we will not have any such disagreeable scene as we had in 1876, when each man was expected to pay his own way and a collection was made for the pur-The party referred to is on the winning side. Now we will see whether Co!, Shoch will reach down in his pocket and pull out a fifty dollar bill to save the disgrace of each man paying his own way. They are the advance guard and are selling books and papers preparatory to the coming of the whole force hither in a couple of weeks, when they expect to "sweep the devil out of this town with the gospel broom." The advance guard sang on the curbstones, and will sing and hold "an original John Wesley meeting" in the Cflicial Visit. Diller Luther, visiting agent of the state board of charities, came to Lancaster this morning and was met at the railroad depot by Superintendent Cox who took him to the county hospital and insane asylum which he inspected. He was then taken through the almshouse by Warden Brock, and afterwards through the jail by Keeper Weise. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the condition in which he found these several institutions. He left BURDICK & ALLEN'S SHOW.

Their Appearance in Quarryville Yesterday. Yesterday Burdick & Allen's tent show gave two performances in Quarryville. The show arrived in the morning at one o'clock and the brass band gave a short parade. At both performances the tent was crowded and the managers made money. There was no ring in the tent as no horses are used in the exhibition. The performance was similar to that given by variety troupes and the features of it were the contortion acts of Henry Wentworth acrobatic performance of the Lorenzo brothers, jig dancing and serio-comic sing-ing by Miss Nellie Thorne and negro performance by two men who were advertised as Pietre and White. Several darkey sketches were well acted, and the whole show seemed to please the audiences.

This show was organized by the proprie tors, both of whom travel with it, in Ohio They have been playing in the small towns throughout the country to good business They have about 20 people and 30 horses and their expenses are therefore small. They appear in Delta, Maryland, to-day.

The Democratic Glee Club, The Hancock glee club, which has been organized for the campaign, consists of the following persons: Geo Pontz, sr., and George Pontz, jr., airs; Frank Sheid, Geo. Kissinger, Benjamin Myers, John Frailey, tenors; John Kissinger, soprano; George Myers, alto; John Keller, baritone; W. C. Geiter and John Bradle, bass. George Pontz, sr., is leader of the club and con poser of songs. The club will sing the latest songs at the Millersville meeting tomorrow evening, and will also attend number of other meetings.

Flaud Not a Fraud. The Examiner having denied the state ment that Daniel Flaud, a Republican soldier of Bird-in-Hand, would vote for Hancock, we have investigated the matter and find our statement exactly true, except that Flaud lives in Mt. Joy and works for his brother, near Bird-in-Hand. Mr. Jno. W. Rhoads, a young Republican, saw Flaud and asked him, and he answered that he would vote for Hancock if he lived until election day.

An Earnest Wish. Rev. E. F. L. Our Boarding School To-night .- In spite of raports to the contrary Minnie Palmer's Gaiety company will this evening appear at Furton opera house in the amusing comedy of "Boarding School." The place of Mr. Wm J. Scanlan, whose withdrawal occasioned the reports that the engagement of the troupe here had been canceled, has been filled by Mr. Wm. Nagle, who is spoken of as au accomplished actor. The company in its reorganized form appeared in Reading lost night and the Times and Dispatch of this morning thus notices the performance: "A delighted audience greeted that charming soubrette Minnie Palmer, and her company of comedians, last evening. As the "spoiled child," mischief and invention, and the character of the rollicking, carelesss young boarding school miss, which she portrayed, was a literal transcript from life. She is full of spirit and natvete, and her laughter floats down over the audience in rippling cascades. She is of the Lotta school of actresses, thoroughly imbaod with the realism of her role, and is sublimely audacious as the professor of the Alpha academy and assistants. Incidental to the comedy were some capital songs rendered by Miss Palmer in good style and clear soprano. William Nagle made a hit as " David Doodle," a servant and searcher after knowledge.
